Such actions shall not be deemed as actions taken against the Client's will or actions undertaken to the detriment of the Client and the Company shall be deemed to have acted on the authority of the Client. The Client hereby authorizes the Company to close any Transaction in the circumstances described in this section 5.5.
- 5.5. A settlement of the Client's Transaction closed pursuant to clause 5.4 shall be reflected in the relevant Trading Account.
- 5.6. The Client shall be obliged to constantly monitor the amount of the required Margin and the amount of additional funds that must be kept on the relevant Account in respect of Open Positions held by the Client from time to time.

6. Prices

General Terms

- 6.1. The Company shall systematically quote on Trading Days the prices of the Financial Instruments on the basis of prices of corresponding Underlying Instruments quoted on the Interbank Market or other financial market on which the trading volume of the above mentioned Underlying Instruments is the highest and most liquid.
- 6.2. Transaction prices shall be quoted on ongoing basis on the Accounts on the basis of current prices made available by the following institutions:
- banks;
 - investment firms and brokers;
 - underlying instruments markets and derivatives markets;
 - prestigious information agencies.
- 6.3. The Company shall use its best efforts to ensure that Transactions prices do not differ materially from the prices of Underlying Instruments made available in real time by the Reference Institutions. On the Client's demand, the Company will disclose to the Client the name of the particular institution, which price was the basis for determination of the Financial Instrument's Price, on which the Transaction was executed, in accordance with the provisions concerning dealing with complaints according to these GTC.

- 6.4. The price of a Financial Instrument determined in the manner specified in this chapter shall be always quoted by the Company two-way- showing simultaneously a bid price and a corresponding ask price. The difference between the bid and the ask price shall constitute the Spread for the particular Financial Instrument.
- 6.5. The decision to select the type of the Transaction and the price at which the Client places an Order to execute the Transaction shall be an autonomous decision of the Client made on his/her own responsibility and at his/her sole discretion, unless:
 - (a) The Company exercises the rights, vested to it in the Agreement, to close the Transaction;
 - (b) the Transaction is closed pursuant to clause 5.4 of the GTC.
- 6.6. The Company does not quote prices of the Financial Instruments, accept Transaction Orders and/or execute Client's Instructions on days other than Trading Days, with the reservation that the Company may accept stop and limit Orders on selected trading platforms for selected Financial Instruments specified in the Condition Tables outside of the Trading Day.
- 6.7. Quotations of prices of the Financial Instruments shall be published via the relevant Trading Account.
- 6.8. If the size of the Client's Order exceeds the maximum size as specified in the Condition Tables (e.g. a maximum Order value in Lots), the Company is entitled to request the Client to meet additional requirements as well as offer special terms for the Transaction. The Company shall notify the Client about such a fact directly in the moment the Order is placed by the Client. The Client may accept the offered conditions solely at his/her own discretion.

Variable Spread

- 6.9. For some of the Financial Instruments and some of the Trading Accounts the Company applies a principle of quoting prices with the use of variable Spread which reflects the prevailing market conditions and volatility of Underlying Instruments' prices.
- 6.10. For the Financial Instruments with variable Spread, the Spread changes constantly, as it reflects the prevailing market conditions, liquidity of the Financial Instruments' market and liquidity of the Underlying Instruments' market.

Market Execution Prices

- 6.11. For Financial Instruments with market execution, prices shown in the Trading Account should be deemed to be of an indicative character only and it is not guaranteed that the Client will deal at the shown quotation. The price of the Client's Order execution shall be based on the best price which the Company can offer at the particular moment without obtaining any additional confirmations from the Client. The price of the Financial Instrument with market execution at which the Transaction was actually executed shall be reported to the Client by the Company after the execution of the Transaction. The price of the executed Transaction shall be visible in the Trading Account.
- 6.12. Some of the offers, orders, prices or transactions coming from or performed by Partners, information agencies, relevant markets or data vendors based on which the Financial Instrument's price with market execution was determined, may be cancelled or withdrawn for reasons being beyond the Company's control. In such a case, the Company shall have the right to withdraw from the respective Transaction on that Financial Instrument concluded by the Client. In such a situation, declaration of withdrawal will be documented and presented to the Client within two days after withdrawal or cancellation of an order, offer or transaction. The Company will bear no responsibility for damages caused by situations described herein.

7. Electronic access to the Trading Account

- 7.1. In order to enable the Client to access electronically to his/her Trading Accounts, to place Instructions and to execute Transactions on Financial Instruments, the Company provides the Client with the unique Login and a starting Password to each Trading Account and also enables the Client to define the Login and the Password individually.
- 7.2. In order to be provided with electronic access to the Trading Account the Client must log into the relevant Trading Account through a trading platform made available by the Company for download to the Client on the Company's Website or via the Company's Website.
- 7.3. The Login and the starting Password shall be delivered to the Client by the Company by telephone using a telephone number provided by the Client in the Agreement or by electronic means of communication only after a prior identification of the Client carried out in accordance with the personal information provided by the Client.
- 7.4. The Client has the right to change the Password to any other Password after logging in to the Trading Account using the Login and the starting Password.
- 7.5. The Client represents that he is fully aware that a disclosure of the Trading Account's Login and Password to any third parties may constitute a serious threat to the security of funds held on his Accounts. Therefore, the Client shall immediately notify the Company if he suspects that his/her identification data referred to in clause 7.3 and 7.4 is known to any third parties.
- 7.6. The Client shall exercise due diligence in terms of storage and disclosure of the Login and the Password or any confidential data contained in the Agreement.
- 7.7. The Client shall be fully responsible and liable for any Transaction Orders placed via the Trading Account or any other Instructions accepted or executed by the Company with due diligence and in compliance with the provisions of the GTC, which were made using the Client's Login and Password.
- 7.8. The Client shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Company for any losses that the Company should incur as a result of executing a Client's erroneous Instructions in the Trading Account if they are made using his/her Login and Password regardless of who actually placed such Orders.
- 7.9. The Company shall not be liable for any consequences arising from the disclosing by the Client of his/her Login and Password to third parties, including the placement of an Order to execute a Transaction or other Instructions made by a third party using the Client's Login and Password.
- 7.10. For reason of trade safety, concerning all Clients, the Company reserves the right to temporarily disconnect any of the Client's Trading Accounts, if the Client substantially burdens trading platforms by generating significant number of requests to the Company's exchange server. Before disconnecting the Client's Trading Account, the Company shall make reasonable efforts to contact the Client via telephone or e-mail and inform that he/she is generating a large amount of requests to the exchange server which may cause the temporary disconnection of his/her Trading Account and if he fails to do so, exercise the Company's right to disconnect any of the Client's Trading Accounts.

8. Order Placement and Execution

- 8.1. Transactions on Financial Instruments executed by the Client via Trading Account do not impose any obligation on either party to make a real delivery of a particular Underlying Instrument.
- 8.2. Transaction may be executed by the Client by placing a valid Order electronically (such validity to be determined as stated in clause 8.6 below) via the relevant Trading Account, as stated in clause 7 further above;
- 8.3. The Order may be placed only on a Trading Day, with the reservation that the Company may accept stop and limit Orders on selected trading platforms for selected Financial Instruments specified in the Condition Tables outside of the Trading Day.
- 8.4. The Client's Order may be rejected and cancelled if the nominal value of the Order to execute a Transaction exceeds the maximum Order size specified in the Condition Tables, or if the opening of the Transaction causes the excess of the Maximum Nominal Portfolio Value.

- 8.5. The Company may refuse to execute a Transaction in the following cases:
- (a) the level of the Margin is insufficient to execute the Transaction;
 - (b) the nominal value of the Transaction exceeds the maximum value of the Order, determined in accordance with clause 8.4;
 - (c) if the Company cannot determine the market price of the Financial Instrument due to a lack of market data;
 - (d) the market experiences extraordinary fluctuations of the price of the Underlying Instrument of the particular Financial Instrument;
 - (e) immediately prior to publication of economic data or as a result of social or political events;
 - (f) a Force Majeure Event takes place;
 - (g) the Maximum Nominal Portfolio Value is exceeded as stated in clause 8.4 further above.
- 8.6. In order to be valid, a Transaction Order shall include the following elements:
- (a) Client's name and surname in case of natural persons or the legal entity's name in case of legal entities;
 - (b) date, hour and minute of placement;
 - (c) type of a Financial Instrument to which the Transaction Order pertains;
 - (d) size of the Transaction Order;
 - (e) Transaction Order number;
 - (f) Transaction Order type;
 - (g) Financial Instrument Price.
- 8.7. When executing the Client's Orders, the Company shall use its best efforts to ensure that Orders are executed immediately after they are placed by the Client.
- 8.8. Until the execution of Client's Order by the Company, the Client may modify or even cancel the Order. The Company shall use its best efforts to execute such Instruction to modify or even cancel the Order, however, the Client cannot claim to the Company that he was not able to modify or cancel his Order, if this Instruction was given by the Client at a time when the Company had already started executing his placed Order.
- 8.9. An Order to execute a Transaction by the Client shall be effective upon the acceptance of the Order by the Company.
- 8.10. The Company shall not be liable for any losses, lost profits or costs incurred by the Client in connection with Instructions or Orders placed via the Trading Account:
- (a) which were not received and therefore were not accepted by the Company;
 - (b) if the Company's acceptance was delayed for reasons being beyond the Company's control.
- 8.11. A position shall be opened by placing a Transaction Order which contains all necessary parameters and upon its acceptance by the Company.
- 8.12. The opening of a position shall create property rights and obligations related to a purchase or sale of a Financial Instrument.
- 8.13. When the Client opens a position or places an Order, the Company shall debit the amount of the Margin payable in accordance with Condition Tables.
- 8.14. A Transaction Order shall be accepted and executed only if the Trading Account shows that the Client has Free Margin on a relevant Account to establish the Margin, for the offered liquidity level, and bear any additional costs of the Transaction. If the funds are insufficient to execute the Transaction, the Order may be rejected and deemed void partially or in whole, subject to the Orders' Execution Policy.
- 8.15. A Closing Position shall determine the rights or obligations arising from a previously Open Position.
- 8.16. The result of Closing Position shall be settled on the day of closing that position. The financial result from Closing Position shall be converted into the Account Currency with the use of the current Company's Exchange Rate, as at the moment of the Transaction.

9. CFDs

- 9.1. In case of opening the position on CFD, and in some cases at the moment of placing an Order within the Trading Account, the Free Margin on the particular Trading Account may be reduced by the:
 - (a) amount of current Margin collected on the particular Trading Account;
 - (b) level of loss on the Client's Open Positions on Financial Instruments;
 - (c) amounts of swap points, commissions and fees payable in accordance with Condition Tables.
- 9.2. If the Equity or the Balance is equal to or lower than 50% of the current Margin blocked on the Trading Account, the Company may, without the Client's further consent, close the Client's Open Positions starting from the position that generates the lowest financial result, to the moment when the required Margin level is being achieved. In such a situation, the Company shall close the CFD Transactions (CFD, StockCFD, ETF CFD) at a current market price in accordance with market regulations of the Underlying Exchange and taking into account the liquidity of the Underlying Instrument, subject to clause 9.4 further below.
- 9.3. A position on a CFD Account shall be closed by executing a Closing Position.
- 9.4. The result on the Transaction on CFD shall be visible on the Trading Account. The result calculated on the relevant Client's Account shall be settled in the moment the position is closed, subject to clause 9.8. In the effect of settlement of all Transactions' result the Balance on the Trading Account does not fall below zero.
- 9.5. In case of Financial Counterparty, the Company calculates results in the following way:
 - (a) Financial Counterparty's unrealized loss is settled by the Company in real time by adjusting the Free Margin on the Financial Counterparty's Account;
 - (b) The Financial Counterparty's unrealized profit will be settled if the unrealized profit on all currently opened Positions exceeds EUR 500.000. If at the end of the day the unrealized profit exceeds EUR 500.000 then the Company will roll over the Financial Counterparty's Open Positions by closing all the Financial Counterparty's Positions, transfer the unrealized profit on the Financial Counterparty's Account and reopen of the closed Position at the closing prices;
 - (c) the amount EUR 500.000 will be exchanged to the Account Currency (crossing through PLN) at the rate published by the Polish National Bank on the day when the aforementioned level was exceeded.
- 9.6. An Open Position on CFD (excluding Synthetic Stock, StockCFD and ETF CFD) shall be closed by the Company without the Client's consent after 365 days from the date of opening the position, at the first Financial Instrument Price provided by the Company after that period, unless:
 - (a) the Client closes the position on its own;
 - (b) the Company exercises the right to close Client's Transaction beforehand in other situations specified in the GTC.
- 9.7. An Open Position on StockCFD and ETF CFD shall be closed by the Company without the Client's consent after 365 days from the date of opening of the position if the value of Equity is lower than the value of commission that would be payable for Transaction closing that position.
- 9.8. If by the end of the Trading Day or, in case of CFDs based on futures contract - by the end of the rollover date, the Client's Open Position is not closed, it shall be automatically prolonged, and the swap points shall be calculated that correspond to the value and the type of an Open Position.
- 9.9. The value of swap points which shall be credited or debited to the Client's Account shall be calculated as the result of the number of Lots opened by the Client and swap points rates for a particular Financial Instrument.
- 9.10. Swap points rates and rollover dates are specified in the Condition Tables.
- 9.11. Swap points rates shall be determined by the Company on the basis of market interest rates for deposits and loans on the Interbank Market, in case of rollover - additionally on the basis of the base value calculated as the difference between the value of the underlying futures contract with the longer expiration and the respective value of the instrument with the shorter expiration date in the moment of rollover.

- 9.12. The Company usually updates swap points rates once a week. However, in the event of significant changes of interest rates for deposits and loans on the Interbank Market, the Company reserves the right to change the Condition Tables more frequently.
- 9.13. The calculated swap points value shall be reflected on the Client's Trading Account. The swap points value calculated on the relevant Client's Account shall be settled at the moment the position is closed.
- 9.14. The following terms and conditions shall apply when particular corporate actions occur in respect of a Client's open position on given, StockCFD or ETF CFD:
- (a) dividends: on the ex-date (the first day without a right to the dividend) each Client holding a long position on a relevant StockCFD or ETF CFD will be credited with the amount equal to dividend and each Client holding a short position will be debited with the amount equal to dividend. Dividends are calculated in respect of the number of StockCFDs or ETF CFDs (equivalent to number of Underlying Instruments) held in the relevant Account. Credits and debits associated with dividend settlement shall be made through crediting or debiting the relevant Trading Account; on the day before the first day without a right to the dividend (ex-date) Open Positions;
 - (b) stock splits, reverse stock splits, rights issues and spinoff: the amount of , Stock CFDs, ETF CFDs or equivalent of funds registered on the relevant Trading Account will be adjusted or particular Trading Account registers will be adjusted on the day when split or reverse split takes place, first day of Underlying Instrument's quotation without the right to dividend or rights or on the spinoff day accordingly;
 - (c) the right to vote, offering rights or similar rights connected with Underlying Instrument: The Client opening a position on, StockCFD or ETF CFD cannot exercise the above-mentioned rights.
 - (d) other corporate actions: The Company will strive to reflect any other corporate actions onto the Clients' Stock CFD or ETF CFD positions, or Client's particular Account so that a position in Stock CFD or ETF CFD reflects economic aspects of having a position in the Underlying Instruments;
 - (e) corporate actions may affect price of Underlying instrument resulting in cancelation of limit Orders or stop Orders on the Underlying Exchange. In such a case the Company will cancel all limit Orders and stop Orders on a given Financial Instrument, and at the same time the Company shall inform the Client if such circumstances occur.
- 9.15. Under some circumstances transactions or orders on the Underlying Exchange being the basis of determining of Financial Instrument's Price may be cancelled or withdrawn. In such cases, the Company shall have the right to withdraw from the relevant Transaction with the Client. In such a case, the declaration of withdrawal from the Transaction will be documented and delivered to the Client within two days following the day after the day the cancelation or withdrawal from the Underlying Instrument transaction on the Underlying Exchange took place.
- 9.16. In the case of technical events, that are beyond the Company's control, a Reference Institution may refuse to place an order on the Underlying Exchange or withdraw an already placed order from the Underlying Exchange resulting from the Client Order on a given, Stock CFD or ETF CFD. In this case the Company will cancel the Client's Order and place the Order having the same parameters again. At the same time the Company shall make appropriate records on the Client's Account and inform the Client if such circumstances occur.
- 9.17. In some cases of limit Orders or stop Orders on Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs the Company may block the applicable Margin at the moment of placing the Order or the Instruction.
- 9.18. If the Underlying Instrument for the Stock CFD or the ETF CFD is being delisted from the Underlying Exchange, the Company shall have the right to close position opened on such an Stock CFD or ETF CFD on the last trading day, or after delisting of Underlying Instrument, and at the same time the Company shall inform the Client if such circumstances occur.
- 9.19. When trading Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs, Clients acknowledge that trading in some Underlying Instruments may be temporarily suspended or put on hold. In such cases Clients may not be able to trade or place the Orders or the Instructions concerning such Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs and their Orders or Instructions may be cancelled.

- 9.20. In some cases, Underlying Instruments for Client's short position in Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs may be recalled by the lending counterparty. In such cases the Company will have to close Client's short position in Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs, in order to close the short position that the Company may itself have with any counterparty. Such cases may occur if the exchange short selling rules change or a financial authority applies special conditions for short selling, lending counterparty will withdraw the possibility of short selling on a given Underlying Instrument or given Underlying Instrument becomes hard to borrow due to low liquidity, high lending costs or due to other circumstances that are beyond the Company's control.
- 9.21. The Company shall not be liable for any damages and/or losses of the Client caused by situations described in clauses 9.15 - 9.20 further above. In such cases the Company shall proceed in accordance with the Orders' Execution Policy as to gain the best results for the Client.
- 9.22. In case of taking a short position on part of Stock CFDs or ETF CFDs, the Company shall offset such position with a corresponding short sale of the Underlying Instrument. Such Transactions may generate additional borrowing costs for a Client related with borrowing of the Underlying Instrument from a lender. The amount of this related cost is beyond the control of the Company. The aforementioned costs shall be collected from a Client at the end of Trading Day and shown in Trading Account as swap points and may significantly influence the costs charged for a short position on, StockCFDs or ETF CFDs. The cost is taken into account when calculating the swap points value of the Financial Instrument. The cost will be indicated in the Condition Tables; however, it may be changed with immediate effect depending on the borrowing costs of the Underlying Instrument.

10. Conflicts of Interest

- 10.1. There may be a conflict of interests of the Company with the Client resulting from the fact that the Company may be a counter party of the Transaction concluded by the Client. The Company undertakes that in such cases it will take the appropriate measures to minimise the influence of this conflict of interests.
- 10.2. The Company's departments which may be affected by the conflict of interests are separated from departments directly cooperating with Clients through the use of so called "Chinese walls" so as to assure the autonomy of the departments which offer the Company's financial products and which evaluate the adequacy of the products for the Clients. The Company's trading department is also separated from the direct contact with Clients.
- 10.3. The Company's organizational structure ensures the limitation of dependency between departments having direct contact with Clients and departments which undertake activities which cause potential conflict of interests.
- 10.4. The employees of the Company's trading department shall refrain from giving public commentaries concerning current or prospect market situation and from taking part in preparation of reports and commentaries published by the Company.
- 10.5. The employees of the Company's trading department shall not know the intention of a Client concerning the direction of the Transaction. The employees of the Company's trading department shall be obliged to present both bid and ask price of the given Financial Instrument in every situation with the use of Spread specified in Condition Tables, which may be used by the Client at his/her own discretion to open a new or close an old position.
- 10.6. The Company's employees are not allowed to accept any gifts in the form of benefits in cash or benefits in kind from the Clients, potential Clients or from third parties.
- 10.7. Detailed information on the basic rules of conduct of the Company in the event of a conflict of interests are available at www.xtb.com/cy in the Information on general principles of managing conflicts of interests of the Company. The Client hereby consents to receive this information via the Company's Website. At the Client's request, the Company will provide the Client with additional information on the policy of preventing conflicts of interest on a durable medium of information.
- 10.8. In case when conflict of interest after conclusion of Agreement arises, the Company immediately informs the Client about the conflict of interest and refrains from providing brokerage services until obtaining express statement from the Client about continuation or termination of the Agreement.

11. Independence

- 11.1. The Instruction or the Order shall constitute independent decision of the Client, which shall be made at his/her own discretion and his/her own responsibility unless otherwise stipulated in the Agreement.
- 11.2. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Agreement, the Company shall not be responsible for the consequences of the Client's decisions, including the Instructions and/or the Orders placed by the Client in a situation where the Client makes his decision upon commentary, suggestion, recommendation or information received from the Company, an employee of the Company, or a person acting on behalf or in the name of the Company. It is hereby clarified that the Company will not advise the Client about the merits of a particular Transaction or give him any form of investment advice and the Client acknowledges that the Services do not include the provision of investment advice including without limitation in relation to CFDs.
- 11.3. The Company will not be under any duty to provide the Client with any legal, tax, investment or other advice relating to any Transaction. The Client may wish to seek independent advice before entering into a Transaction.

12. Reports and Correspondence

- 12.1. The Company shall provide the Client on an ongoing basis via the Trading Account with access to such information necessary to determine:
 - (a) the Balance of the relevant Accounts;
 - (b) the amount of the Margin currently used;
 - (c) current Open Positions on Financial Instruments;
 - (d) Equity;
 - (e) the Free Margin;
- 12.2. Immediately after executing the Transaction or the placing the Transaction Order by the Client on the relevant Trading Account an appropriate confirmation of the executed Transaction shall be generated, which shall be displayed in real time on the relevant Trading Account and archived for evidence purposes by the Company.
- 12.3. For the purposes of tax and/or subject to applicable law the Company may provide Client with additional reports and confirmations.
- 12.4. The Company provides the Client on a durable medium, for example via e-mail, with detailed information regarding the execution of the Order at the Client's request.
- 12.5. The Company provides the Client on a quarterly basis on a durable medium (for example by e-mail), with a statement of the Client's Financial Instruments and/or Client's funds held by the Company under the terms of the Agreement. At the Client's request, the Company may provide the statement referred to in the preceding sentence more frequently than on a quarterly basis, provided that the fee specified in the Conditions Tables is paid.
- 12.6. At least once a year, the Company provides the Client on a durable medium (for example by e-mail), information on costs and fees incurred by the Client in connection with the services that may be provided by the Company to the Client. This information may be provided by the Company together with the statements referred to in clause 12.5.
- 12.7. At the Client's request, the Company provides the Client free of charge and on a one-off basis, with the paper key information documents on Financial Instruments offered by the Company (so-called "KIDS"), which are provided to the Client in electronic form prior to the conclusion of the Agreement.
- 12.8. the Company may prepare a statement showing Transactions registered on the Client's Trading Account for any period in a paper form, subject to the payment to the Company of a fee specified in the Condition Tables.

- 12.9. The Client shall exercise due diligence by constantly monitoring the conditions of Transactions recorded in the Trading Account and shall immediately notify the Company about any inconsistencies that come to his attention.
- 12.10. Subject to the provisions of clause 16, the Company shall correspond with the Client by ordinary mail, electronic mail, internal electronic mail in the Client Office or by other means of electronic communication. Parties hereby agree that any declarations of will or statements related to performance of trading in Financial Instruments or other activities performed by the Company may be submitted by the parties in electronic form.
- 12.11. In the situations specified in the GTC as well as in other cases, when the Company deems it necessary, the Company shall correspond by registered mail or courier services.
- 12.12. The Clients shall be obliged to acquaint themselves with the correspondence received or deemed to be received by them from the Company.
- 12.13. Any correspondence sent to the Client by the Company, shall be deemed received by the Client:
- (a) in the case of registered mail – upon its delivery;
 - (b) in the case of electronic mail – after 1 day from the date and time of sending;
 - (c) in the case of an internal electronic mail in the Client Office – after 1 day from the date and time of sending;
 - (d) in the case of a courier service – upon delivery.
- 12.14. The Company will, depending on the nature of the Transaction and on whether it should be reported under Applicable Regulations, report a Transaction to the competent authority as provided by Applicable Regulations as quickly as possible and no later than the close of the following Business Day.

13. Force Majeure

- 13.1. Force Majeure shall mean a situation in which, due to events being beyond the Company's control, the functioning of the Company or the Client's Trading Account in accordance with the Regulations is not possible. A Force Majeure Event shall include without limitation each of the following:
- (a) riots, strikes, power outages, fire, lack of communication, armed conflicts, the outbreak of war or hostilities, the threat of war, national emergency, civil disturbance, sabotage, requisition, or any other international calamity, economic or political crisis;
 - (b) situations related with the occurrence of terrorist attacks;
 - (c) destruction of the Company's Offices or circumstances which disable the capability of the Company's operational activity;
 - (d) a situation in which quotations of Underlying Instruments on a specific market have been suspended or stopped or if for any reason a relevant market has been closed or trading has been suspended, or there is a regulatory ban on the activities of any party (unless the Company has caused that ban);
 - (e) a situation in which specific requirements or principles have been imposed on a particular market that prevent an execution of transactions in accordance with the existing generally accepted principles;
 - (f) breakdown of IT systems, for which the Company does not bear responsibility;
 - (g) breakdown of computer devices, disabling the proper functioning of IT systems, for which the Company does not bear responsibility;
 - (h) lack of Internet connection, due to the breakdown of the internet provider or connectivity overload;
 - (i) breakdown of telecommunication systems, for which the Company does not bear responsibility;
 - (j) Act of God, earthquake, tsunami, hurricane, typhoon, accident, storm, flood, fire, epidemic or other natural disaster;
 - (k) Labour disputes and lock-out;

(l) A financial services moratorium having been declared by appropriate regulatory authorities or any other acts or regulations of any regulatory, governmental, supervisory, regulatory or supranational body or authority;

(m) Any event, act or circumstances not reasonably within the Company's control and the effect of that event(s) is such that the Company is not in a position to take any reasonable action to cure the default.

13.2. If the Company determines in its reasonable opinion that a Force Majeure Event exists (without prejudice to any other rights under the Agreement) the Company may without prior notice and at any time take any or all of the following steps:

(a) Suspend or modify the application of any or all terms of the Agreement to the extent that the Force Majeure Event makes it impossible or impractical for the Company to comply with them;

(b) Take all such other actions as the Company deems to be reasonably appropriate in the circumstances with regard to the position of the Company, the Client and other clients;

(c) Omit to take all such other actions as the Company deems to be reasonably inappropriate in the circumstances with regard to the position of the Company, the Client and other clients;

(d) Cease providing access to the Trading Account in case of malfunction for maintenance or to avoid damage;

(e) Close out Client Open Positions so as not to expose the Client to risk;

(f) Refuse to accept Orders from Clients;

(g) Close out any or all Client Open Positions at such prices as the Company considers in good faith to be appropriate;

(h) increase Spreads;

(i) decrease leverage.

13.3. In the case that a Force Majeure Event takes place, the Company will not be liable or have any responsibility to the Client for any type of loss or damage arising out of any failure, interruption, or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement.

14. Commissions, Fees and Inducements

14.1. The Company has the right to charge commissions and fees for the services provided to the Client.

14.2. Detailed information about commissions and fees shall be specified in the Condition Tables.

14.3. It is agreed and understood that the Client shall be solely responsible for all filings, tax returns and reports which should be made to any relevant authority, whether governmental or otherwise, and for payment of all taxes (including but not limited to any transfer or value added taxes), arising out of or in connection with his trading activity with the Company hereunder.

14.4. The Client undertakes to pay all stamp expenses relating to this Agreement and any documentation which may be required for the carrying out of the transactions under this Agreement.

14.5. Should the Company pay or receive any fees, costs or inducements for the introduction of the Client or associated with trading in the Company's products or services, it shall notify the Client according to Applicable Regulations. In such a case only, the Company will inform, at least once a year, its clients on an individual basis about the actual amount of payments received. The Client will also be informed of the applicable prices, charges and spreads and any terms and conditions. This does not affect the commitment of the Company to offer the same level and quality of service to all Clients. The Company will also provide its clients on an annual basis with information of the exact amount of the payment paid on an ex-post basis. Such a fee is designed to enhance the quality of the service offered to the Client.

15. Liability and Erroneous Prices

15.1. The Company shall not be liable for any Client's losses arising from the execution of the Client's Instruction.

- 15.2. The Company shall not be liable for loss of earnings and/or profits and/or or losses of the Client caused by interruptions or delays in the transmission of data due to reasons beyond the Company's control. In particular, the Client may not claim against the Company that due to a fault in the functioning of telecommunication lines he/she could not place the Transaction Order, submit the Instruction or obtain information regarding his/her Accounts.
- 15.3. The Client acknowledges that quotations published by the Company in a particular Trading Account may deviate from the price of the Underlying Instrument. Subject to the other provisions of the Agreement, such a price may be considered as erroneous, and each party may withdraw from the Transaction or the parties may adjust the terms of executed Transactions as described below:
At the moment of execution of the Transaction the Financial Instrument's Price offered by the Company differs from the price of the Underlying Instrument, on which it was based, quoted at the moment of the execution of the Transaction by at least two Reference Institutions, by more than two Spreads for the first liquidity level available in the Company's order book for the particular Financial Instrument, and for next liquidity levels available in the Company's order book for a particular Financial Instrument by more than three Spreads.
- 15.4. If the Transaction was made at erroneous price, the party who objects to such erroneous price may withdraw from the Transaction by submitting a declaration of withdrawal or request to correct the terms of the Transaction. If the Client is the party who objects regarding the price correctness, the Company shall not later than 7 business days following the day when the above objections were made by the Client, on the basis of quotation of two Reference Institutions, resolve whether the price was erroneous or not. Declaration of withdrawal served by the Client shall be effective only if the Company confirms in accordance with this point that the price of Transaction was erroneous. In case of lack of Client's request, the Company shall regard the Transaction as binding for the parties regardless of the error.
- 15.5. In order to withdraw from the Transaction or correct the terms of the Transaction the parties shall submit respective statements by electronic mail, in the manner specified in clause 16 of the GTC. An offer to correct the terms of Transaction shall not be binding if the other party does not accept the offer without undue delay. In such an event it shall be deemed that the other party does not accept the offer to correct the terms of Transaction. The offer to correct the terms of Transaction may be cancelled by the party placing an offer at any time before its acceptance by the other party. In case of rejection of the offer to correct the Transaction or a lack of timely response by any party, each of the parties is entitled to withdraw from the Transaction in accordance with clause 15.4.
- 15.6. As a result of withdrawal from the Transaction in accordance with clause 15.4, the Company shall adjust the respective Balance and other registers within given Accounts and record respectively the Balance or other records according to the state existing prior to conclusion by the Client of the Transaction on the erroneous price. If the withdrawal applies to the Transaction closing the Open Position, the withdrawal causes restoring of the Open Position and the adjustment of the respective Balance and other registers within given Accounts to the state that would have existed if the position was never closed.
- 15.7. As a result of correction of the terms of the Transaction, the Company shall adjust the respective Balance and other registers to the amount and state which would have been recorded on the given Account if the Transaction had been concluded on the market price. The market price shall be determined in the manner set forth in clause 15.4 of the GTC.
- 15.8. The Company shall not be liable to the Client for any damage caused by erroneous price, if the error in the price was caused by circumstances being beyond the Company's control. In case the error is a result of circumstances for which the Company is liable, the Company shall be liable for damages of the Client limited to the amount of 10% of the Margin value which constituted the collateral of Transaction concluded by the Client on the erroneous price. No provision of the GTC shall limit the liability of the Company towards the Clients for damages caused by the Company's wilful misconduct or fraud.

- 15.9. The circumstances in which the Company shall not be liable to the Client for any damage and/or loss include, but are not limited to:
- (a) third parties' acts, errors or omissions, for which the Company does not bear responsibility, in particular caused by financial institutions by data errors on the basis of which the Company determines the Financial Instrument Prices;
 - (b) Force Majeure Events;
 - (c) Any person obtaining the Client's Login and Password prior to the Client reporting to the Company such an occurrence and any misuse of such Login and Password.

Counteracting the systematic concluding of Transactions based on erroneous prices

- 15.10. If, based on the Client's Transactions, the Company notices that Transactions are systematically concluded by the Client on erroneous prices, the Company reserves the right, irrespective of other provisions of the GTC, to:
- (a) terminate the Agreement with immediate effect, and/or
 - (b) close any Trading Account of the Client with immediate effect.
- 15.11. Clause 15.10 shall apply to situations including, but not limited to where the Client deliberately uses, by means of a software or in other manner, a practice which systematically takes advantage of: price slippages, price delays, delays in Order execution and any other situations where the Financial Instrument Price at the moment of the conclusion of the Transaction deviates in any manner from the Underlying Instrument's price.

16. Client Complaints

- 16.1. Complaints related to the services provided by the Company, can be submitted by the Client as specified below:
- (a) a. By sending by post or delivering in person a letter which will include all of the following information: Name, Surname, Passport Number, Country of Residence, Legal Entity Name, Trading Account Number, Postal Address, City, Telephone Number including country Code, Email, Date of the complaints' event, Name of Employee (if applicable) and the Description of the Complaint, to the following address: XTB Limited (ex. DUB Investments Ltd), Building: HIGHSIGHT RENTALS LTD, Pikioni 10, 3075 Limassol, Cyprus
 - (b) By submitting the Complaints Form electronically via the Company's Client Portal.
- 16.2. Any forms and contact data concerning filing complaints, are indicated in the Complaints Procedure for clients, provided on the Company's Website.
- 16.3. The complaint shall contain:
- (a) all relevant information enabling the Company to identify the Client, consistent with the information submitted to the Company at the conclusion of the Agreement or as later amended;
 - (b) brief description of the problem;
 - (c) time of occurrence of the problem, which the complaint concerns;
 - (d) a number of the Account;
 - (e) a precise request;
 - (f) a number of the Order or the Transaction the complaint concerns, if applicable.
- 16.4. If the content of the complaint is not clear or sufficiently precise or there is doubt as to what exactly the complaint relates to, the Company shall have the right to ask the Client to submit further information or make clarifications. The Client acknowledges and accepts that if a complaint is not sufficiently clear or any information is requested not provided, the complaint might be on such basis be rejected by the Company.
- 16.5. Lack of any of the items listed in clause 16.3 results in an interruption of the period for reply to the Client's complaint until the complaint is completed with the missing items. After the complaint is completed, the period for the reply restarts from the point of interruption.

- 16.6. The Company will confirm receipt of the complaint within five days of its receipt or on request from the Client.
- 16.7. The Company shall immediately investigate the situation that caused the complaint of the Client and consider Client's complaint not later than 60 days from the date of filing the complaint. The Company will respond to a complaint in writing or on a durable medium of information or, if requested by the Client, only in electronic form. If the complaint, due to its particular complexity, cannot be responded in the aforesaid period, the Company shall provide the complaining Client with further information including:
- (a) explanations of the reasons for the delay;
 - (b) indication of circumstances that have to be established for consideration of the complaint;
 - (c) expected date of consideration of and response to the complaint, which shall not exceed 90 days from the receipt of the complaint.
- 16.8. The provision of this clause 16.7 do not apply, if the complaint was filed according to the provisions of clause 15.4.
- 16.9. The Client can file a complaint by a proxy authorised in accordance with provisions of clauses 17.2 - 17.3.
- 16.10. The Client acknowledges that filing a complaint immediately after what the Client deems as irregularities are revealed to the Client, will enable the quicker consideration of the complaint by the Company, unless this situation is not relevant to the procedure of considering the complaint.
- 16.11. The Client has the right to appeal against a decision of the Company concerning a complaint. The Rules in the GTC applicable to Client's complaints also apply to the appeal procedure. If the Client's appeal is rejected by the Company, then the Company will not consider any further appeals from the Client concerning the same matter if no additional new circumstances have appeared which could lead to a change of the decision of the Company regarding the complaint.
- 16.12. Notwithstanding the provisions of the GTC, the Client has the right to bring an action before the competent court. This applies also to situations when the Client is not satisfied with the decision of the Company to the claim submitted by him/her. Hence the Client's right to take legal action remains unaffected by the existence or use of any complaints procedures referred to above.
- 16.13. It is noted that where the Client is a natural person, it may have the right to file a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman of Cyprus as provided by applicable laws.

17. Authorizations

- 17.1. The Client has the right to appoint proxies authorized to execute any activities on his behalf related to conclusion, amendment, termination or performance of the Agreement.
- 17.2. In accordance with the provisions of the applicable law, the authorisation or revocation thereof may be granted only in writing in the presence of a person authorised by the Company who shall confirm the data contained in the authorisation and the authenticity of signatures of the Client and its proxy.
- 17.3. The requirement referred to in the clause 17.2 shall not apply to powers of attorney granted in writing with a signature of a principal certified by a notary public or in the form of a notary deed. However, in order for powers of attorney granted in the above manner to be effective, a specimen signature of the authorized proxy certified by a notary public shall be attached to the power of attorney.
- 17.4. A proxy may appoint further proxies only if such a possibility is expressly provided in the authorisation.
- 17.5. An expiry of an authorisation shall be effective towards the Company upon receipt of a notice regarding: (a) revocation of authorisation by the Client or by a proxy, (b) Client's or proxy's death, (c) loss of Client's legal personality if the Client is a legal person.
- 17.6. The form and content of a proxy as well as the person to be appointed as proxy must be of the approval of the Company as the Company may decide at its absolute discretion.

18. Final Provisions

- 18.1. By accepting the GTC, the Client agrees and acknowledges that the Company shall have the right and/or is obliged to record all conversations and communications between the Client and the Company conducted by telephone or any other means of communication, in particular the correspondence in the electronic form, and the right to use such recordings and records as evidence in any disputes between the parties. The Client accepts such recordings as conclusive evidence of the Orders/Instructions or conversations so recorded. A copy of the recording of the conversation with the Client and/or other correspondence with the Client may be provided to the Client at his request within 5 years from the date of the conversation or exchange of other correspondence.
- 18.2. The Company collects and stores the Client's personal data in accordance law, in particular with the applicable personal data protection and anti-money laundering regulations.
- 18.3. The Client confirms that was informed, that the Company can rely on the Client's personal data and can store and process it inter alia for the purposes of performance of the Agreement, including but not limited to the maintenance of relations with the Client, maintenance of the Client's Accounts, collection of debts, the Client's applications examination process, a risk assessment, ensuring regulatory compliance, and development and analysis of the Company's products and services.
- 18.4. The Client acknowledges that the Company has the right to disclose Client information (including recordings and documents of a confidential nature, card details) where required by law, where required by the order of a competent court, where required by CySEC or any other authority duly authorised to request and receive such information, to the relevant authorities to investigate or prevent fraud, money laundering or other illegal activity, to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies, third party authentication service providers, other organisations for credit checking, fraud prevention, anti-money laundering purposes, identification or due diligence checks of the Client, trade depositories or similar under the Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012 on OTC derivatives, central counterparties (CCPs) and trade repositories (TRs) (EMIR).
- 18.5. In order to continuously improve its services and trading platforms, the Company allows certain Clients to voluntarily participate in testing periods of certain services and technologies that are under the development process (hereinafter referred to as the "Beta Services"). The Client hereby acknowledges that by voluntarily applying and accepting to use the Beta Services and participate in aforesaid testing period he/she accepts that:
- (a) the Beta Services are performed in real trading environment and the Client trades with real funds gathered in his/her Trading Account;
 - (b) the Beta Services contain limitations and deficiencies that may result in technical or transaction errors. In particular, as a result of errors in Beta Services, Client's Trading Account may stop working or may be working incorrectly and Client's Orders may not be executed, may be executed erroneously or on erroneous prices, or it may be impossible to place the Orders at all.
- 18.6. The Client voluntarily participating in Beta Services accepts that in the case of Beta Services, the Company shall have the right in its sole discretion to withdraw or unilaterally change the terms of Orders or Transactions that are distorted by the error in Beta Services, regardless of the reasons of error. The right to withdraw or unilaterally change the terms of Client's Orders or Transactions may be exercised by the Company irrespective of clauses 15.3-15.9 of these GTC.
- 18.7. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to prevent the Beta Services' Clients from suffering any damage in case of occurrence of any errors in Beta Services. However, the Client acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall not be liable for any damages incurred by Client resulting from errors and defects that appear in Beta Services.
- 18.8. The Company shall be entitled to stop providing Beta Services to the Client upon notification at any time in which case the provisions of the GTC concerning procedures of termination of the Agreement by the Company shall not apply. Client is entitled to withdraw from Beta Services at any time. For this purpose, the Client shall inform the Company of this intention in writing, electronically or by telephone.

- 18.9. If the Client Account is inactive for 365 days the Company reserves the right to render the account dormant and shall have the right to charge the Client Account an Inactivity Fee as determined by the Company in its discretion from time to time in the Fees and Commission Table (depending in the Currency of the Client Account). The Company shall not need to contact the Client before it starts charging the fee. These fees will be charged in the amount of free funds remaining on the Customer's account. Before the fee is collected, the amounts are converted into the currency of the account
- 18.10. If the Client Account is inactive for 365 days or more, the Company reserves the right to close the account
- 18.11. The Company has the right to amend the GTC for any of the following reasons:
- (a) due to changes in the generally applicable provisions of law, which have or may have an impact on the Company, including services provided by the Company or customer support of the Company;
 - (b) due to the need to adapt the GTC to the applicable law;
 - (c) due to changes in the interpretation of provisions of law, resulting from court rulings, resolutions, decisions, recommendations or other acts of state bodies;
 - (d) due to the need to adapt the GTC to the decisions, guidelines, recommendations, or other positions of the supervision authorities;
 - (e) due to the need to adapt the GTC to the requirements relating to consumer protection;
 - (f) due to a change in the scope of business activity or change in the scope of provided services or change in the manner of services provision;
 - (g) due to introduction of new products or services to the offer of the Company or change of the offer of the Company concerning the modification of products or services, including the scope and manner of their provision;
 - (h) due to the need to adapt the GTC to changing market conditions, including offers of competing investment firms, technological changes and/or changes in the functioning of derivatives market;
- 18.12. In such a case, the Company shall inform the Client in advance by prior written notice sent to the Client at least 5 days before the date in which the amendments come into force. The notice shall include information specified in clause 18.20. The content of the amended GTC shall be available in the Company's Office and on the Company's Website.
- 18.13. The Company has the right to amend other documents which regulate the terms and conditions of cooperation between the Client and the Company, in particular the Condition Tables, the Orders' Execution Policy, the Declaration of Investment Risk, upon a prior written notice to the Client sent, at least 5 days prior to entry into force of such amendments for the reasons specified in clause 18.11. The documents will be available in the Company's Office and on the Company's Website. The Company has the right to amend the Condition Tables, concerning commissions and fees, for the following important reasons:
- (a) due to change in the level of inflation;
 - (b) due to increase of the cost of operating the Account or the cost of services provided by the Company, in particular as a result of changes in the prices of energy, telecommunication connections, postal services, transaction settlement costs and other costs incurred by the Company in the benefit of capital market institutions, including costs incurred through Co-Operators;
 - (c) due to a change of law affecting the increase in the cost of maintaining the Account or the cost of providing services;
 - (d) due to introduction of charges related to the implementation of new services or products;
 - (e) due to a change of scope, form or manner of performing services, in particular in order to adapt them to the current standards of the brokerage or other service activity, market conditions, technological changes, etc.

- 18.14. Irrespective of any other provisions, the Company is entitled to change the swap points set out in the Condition Tables and rollover dates with the immediate effect.
- 18.15. Irrespective of any other provisions, the Company is entitled to change the value of the required Margin with immediate effect, after having informed the Client, also for the Open Positions, in case of a Force Majeure Event and in cases where one of the following events occurs or the Company considers that it is highly probable that in the nearest future one of the following events will occur, such as: extraordinary volatility of the price of the Underlying Instrument or loss or significant decrease of liquidity of the Underlying Instrument's market or other extraordinary event on the Underlying Instrument's market.
- 18.16. Irrespective of any other provisions of the GTC, the Company shall also have the right to perform changes other than the ones referred to in the preceding clauses 18.11 - 18.14, with immediate effect, if:
- (a) such changes result in the lowering of the Client's costs of Transactions;
 - (b) such changes introduce new Financial Instruments for offer by the Company;
 - (c) the availability of short sale or borrowing cost on the given Underlying Instrument has changed;
 - (d) a Force Majeure Event occurs;
 - (e) such changes do not affect negatively the legal or economic standing of the Client.
- 18.17. Any amendments made pursuant to this clause 18 shall apply to within their scope, the conditions of each open Transaction and shall be binding for the Client and the Company from their time of entry into force.
- 18.18. In the event of any amendment to the documents or conditions resulting in the removal of a given Financial Instrument from the Condition Tables, the Company may call upon the Client to close a Position on a given Financial Instrument within the prescribed time limit which shall not be shorter than 7 days. Where the Client, despite a request, fails to close his Open Positions within the prescribed time limit, the Company may close the Client's Open Positions on a given Financial Instrument without the Client's consent.
- 18.19. Where, and subject to the applicable rules of law, the Company requests from the Client to provide specific data and/or information, and the Client does not provide the Company with the data and/or information and does not offer satisfactory justification, the Company is entitled to, after prior request to the Client:
- (a) refuse to conclude or terminate the Agreement with the Client;
 - (b) refuse the Client to conclude a Transaction or execute an Instruction, and particularly to reject each Client's Order;
 - (c) block the Client's access to Trading Account.
- 18.20. The Client who does not accept amendments to the GTC specified in this chapter shall have the right to terminate the Agreement and close any or all of the Accounts with immediate effect.
- 18.21. Each Party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving at least five Business Days Written Electronic Notice to the other Party.
- 18.22. Irrespective of any other provisions of the GTC, the Company has the right to terminate the Agreement or to Close the given Client's account:
- a) due to Important Reasons, within 1 (one) month notice period;
 - b) with an immediate effect, upon the notice sent to the Client, in case of breach of the GTC by the Client. The Company shall notify the Client about reasons of termination.
- 18.23. Notification about the termination of the Agreement shall be sent by the Company to the Client by email.
- 18.24. Termination by any Party will not affect any obligation which has already been incurred by either Party or any legal rights or obligations which may already have arisen under the Agreement or any Transactions made hereunder.
- 18.25. Upon termination of this Agreement, all amounts payable by the Client to the Company will become immediately due and payable including (but without limitation) all outstanding costs and any other amounts payable to the Company, any charges and additional expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Company as a result of the termination of the Agreement. Prior or upon Termination, the Company will give instructions to the Broker to pay the Company the above amounts.

- 18.26. Once notice of termination of this Agreement is sent and before the termination date:
- (a) the Client will have an obligation to close all his Open Positions. If he fails to do so, upon termination, the Company will close any Open Positions;
 - (b) the Company will be entitled to cease to grant the Client access to the Platform(s) or may limit the functionalities the Client is allowed to use on the Platform(s);
 - (c) the Company will be entitled to refuse to accept new Orders from the Client;
 - (d) the Company will be entitled to refuse to the Client to withdraw money from the Client Account and the Company reserves the right to keep Client's funds as necessary to close positions which have already been opened and/or pay any pending obligations of the Client under the Agreement
- 18.27. Upon Termination any or all the following may apply:
- (a) The Company has the right to combine any Client Accounts of the Client, to consolidate the Balances in such Client Accounts and to set off those Balances;
 - (b) The Company has the right to close the Client Account(s);
 - (c) The Company has the right to convert any currency;
 - (d) The Company has the right to close out the Client's Open Positions;
 - (e) In absence of illegal activity or suspected illegal activity or fraud of the Client or instructions from the relevant authorities, if there is Balance in the Client's favour, the Company will (after withholding such amounts that in the Company's absolute discretion considers appropriate in respect of future liabilities) pay such Balance to the Client as soon as reasonably practicable and supply him with a statement showing how that Balance was arrived at and, where appropriate, instruct any Nominee or/and any Custodian to also pay any applicable amounts. Such funds shall be delivered in accordance to the Client's Instructions to the Client. It is understood that the Company will effect payments only to an account in the name of the Client. The Company has the right to refuse, at its discretion, to effect third party payments.
- 18.28. Each of the following constitutes an Event of Default:
- (a) the failure of the Client to perform any obligation under the Agreement;
 - (b) where an application is made in respect of the Client pursuant to the Cyprus Bankruptcy Act or any equivalent insolvency act in another Jurisdiction (if the Client is an individual), if a partnership, in respect of one or more of the partners, or if a company, a receiver, trustee, administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed, or if the Client makes an arrangement or composition with the Client's creditors or any procedure which is similar or analogous to any of the above is commenced in respect of the Client;
 - (c) where any representation or warranty made by the Client becomes untrue;
 - (d) where the Client dies or is declared absent or becomes of unsound mind;
 - (e) where the Company believes that the Client or his /her/its proxy may involve and/or has involved the Company in any type of fraud or illegality or breach of Applicable Regulations or in the Company's opinion is at risk of involving the Company in any type of fraud or illegality or breach of Applicable Regulations.
 - (f) Where the Company believes that the Client or its proxy is engaged into money laundering activities or terrorist financing or other criminal activities.
- 18.29. Irrespective of any other provision of the GTC, if an Event of Default occurs the Company may, in addition to termination as stated above and without limitation, take one or more of the following actions:
- (a) Close out all or any of the Client's Open Positions at current prices.
 - (b) Restrict access to the Trading Account.
 - (c) Reject any Orders of the Client.
- 18.30. The termination notice of the Agreement will not affect previously acquired rights and in particular on the execution of obligations resulting from the closed and/or opened positions.

- 18.31. The services provided by the Company pursuant to the Agreement and the GTC shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Cyprus and the Courts of Cyprus shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- 18.32. The Company's official language is the English language and the Client should always read and refer to the Website for all information and disclosures about the Company and its activities.
- 18.33. Should any part of this Agreement be held by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable or illegal or contravene any rule, regulation or by the law of any Market or regulator, that part will be deemed to have been excluded from this Agreement from the beginning, and this Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as though the provision had never been included and the legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement or the legality, validity or enforceability of this provision in accordance with the law and/or regulation of any other jurisdiction, shall not be affected.
- 18.34. The Company's failure to seek redress for violations, or to insist upon strict performance, of any condition or provision of this Agreement, or its failure to exercise any or part of any of right or remedy to which the Company is entitled under this Agreement, shall not constitute an implied waiver thereof.
- 18.35. The Company may at any time transfer, assign or novate any of its rights, benefits or obligations under this Agreement subject to providing previous notification to the Client.
- 18.36. The Client may not transfer, assign, charge, novate or otherwise transfer or purport to do so the Client's rights or obligations under the Agreement without prior written consent of the Company.
- 18.37. All rights and remedies provided to the Company under the Agreement are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.
